

Their first one.

Music, voice messages and family calls in one pocketable talkie — no feeds, no apps, no camera. Kids get independence; parents get peace of mind.

One glowing talk button

Hold it, talk, let go. It pulses when a message is waiting.

A wheel, like a mouse

Roll to scroll, click to choose. The whole interface in one thumb.

A screen that stays calm

2.4" glanceable display — song titles and names, not videos.

Built like a toy, opens like a tool

2.5 mm walls survive the playground; four screws make it repairable.

Four finishes.
